“Maryann ... I will miss our conversations! You always made me feel good! Your thoughtful gestures in sharing the fruits of your labor that you and Phil grew in your backyard will never be forgotten! Your sense of humor always cracked me up. Sometimes, we would laugh so hard that our sides ached! I enjoyed our walks together. We discussed everything under the sun. Nothing was off limits! One of my favorite memories of you, was when I drove you to a court house where you received your US citizenship! We had dinner afterwards, where we laughed so hard, because we got lost on the way to the court house and you thought you would miss your appointment. I never saw anyone run so fast when we got to the courthouse parking lot! You made it on time and we had much to celebrate! Thank you Maryann! I will always hold you in my heart!”

“ Maryann is my husband's auntie. I know her and I aren't blood related, but she always treated me like a daughter. She was always there to listen to my gripes. I will miss her conversation, her dinners and most of all her warm hugs! Maryann thank you for sharing your raspberries with me. I love you!
