“ My favorite memory of Matt involves User Conference. It was pretty early in my acquaintance. I decided to shadow Matt on a session he was given. Here comes Matt and Joselynn dancing down the aisles. That sense of fun is something I always appreciated about Matt. The other major characteristic is generous. Matt often shared of his time and knowledge even when he was super busy. He never once said, I don't have time to help you. Thank you Matt for being there for me and so many of our colleagues. Dance on my friend. God has you now.

“ I remember how delighted Matt was when he came home with an older silver boxer porsche that was in excellent condition. He just glowed with happiness. Then he offered my daughter and me the keys to take a spin. Now that is a man not only kind and sweet but willing to share his delight with the world. A good neighbor, a good friend and I will deeply miss him. A new journey for you Matt full of grace and close to your God.
