“ Matt was my daughter Amy's dearest friend. He and she cared about each other and helped each other in many ways. I came to know Matt through their special relationship and became very close to him. He spent a lot of time at my home as well as at my cabin on Leech Lake where he even put in a spanking new kitchen floor. He was always willing to help with anything. I know he cared deeply for his family and being back together with them meant the world to him. Our family is very small so that was new to him, and then he became part of my family. I trusted Matt with my home and my daughter. Matt, you will always be missed and I will always think of you with love and fondness. In my grief with the loss of my husband when he was only 39 years old I have learned to focus on the positives and treasure those memories. I miss you but you are in my heart.
