Obituary for Maurice Walter Dixon (1931-2026)

Maurice Walter Dixon passed away on January 18, 2026, at the age of 94. Born on June 22, 1931, he married the love of his life, Margaret Mary Vogel, on August 20, 1955. They shared 58 years together until her passing on June 28, 2013.

Maurice was a dedicated father and grandfather. He is survived by his daughter Christa Siddy, her husband Steven, and their son Joseph. He is also survived by his son Thomas and wife Joanne, along with their children Jennifer and Michael; Michael and his wife Lauren have two sons, Crosby and Kieran.

Maurice studied at the University of Minnesota and the Minnesota School of Business before embarking on a lifelong career in sales. Over several decades, he became a fixture in the janitorial and industrial cleaning supplies sector. He was more than just a businessman; he was a salesperson, manager, executive, and trainer. Maurice's passion for consulting and mentorship left an indelible mark on the industry and those he trained.

Maurice will be remembered for his strong work ethic, his commitment to excellence, his devotion to family, and a life well lived.

Private family service to be held. Interment at Resurrection Cemetery in Mendota Heights, Minnesota.

“ I worked for Dix in 1976 @ the Stark's company. He was a hard driver, who only wanted the best for the company and his employees. [I am acquainted with son-in-law Steve [[friend of his brother Eddy]] from many years ago.] Dix taught me a lot, and also taught me to be sober!! Wonderful man!
