

Maurice Lee Wickstrom

September 29, 1956 - October 22, 2025

Wickstrom, Maurice "Morrie", age 69, of Coon Rapids, passed away October 22, 2025

Morrie was born in Duluth September 29, 1956, to parents Mary Ann and Lee Wickstrom. He had a great childhood in Meadowlands, MN, where he enjoyed spending time in the woods and nature. He helped out at his grandparents' dairy farm, enjoying the memorable socializing around the kitchen table and family get togethers. After high school, he joined Duluth Local 563 Ironworkers apprenticeship program. Eventually he moved to the Twin Cities, joining Local 512, becoming a lifetime member and retiring after 42 years.

Morrie was a loving, devoted husband and father. His priority was having time at home to spend with his wife, Bridget, and sons Alex and Andrew. Morrie liked long hikes or bike rides. He enjoyed socializing with family, friends and neighbors. Morrie didn't need much for himself, but made certain that others had what they needed. He was a conscientious man who would not hesitate to stand up for what was right, fair and just. He was a great man.

Morrie will be deeply missed by his wife, Bridget; sons Alex and Andrew; brother Mark (Sherry) Wickstrom; aunt/uncle Phyllis and Darrel Koivunen; aunt Sari Svoboda; and many nephews, nieces, cousins and friends. He was preceded in death by his parents Lee and Mary Ann Wickstrom. Mass of Christian Burial Thursday, Nov 6th, 11 AM with a visitation one hour before at The Church of St. Timothy, 707 89th Av. NE, Blaine.

“ When Cheryl and I had our first child Jennifer, Morrie came to our house to congratulate us. Morrie and I shared a couple beers and then he asked if we had chosen God parents yet. We had three picked but needed one more. He asked if we would consider him because he wanted to be "The Godfather of Swedetown." We said yes! When Jennifer got confirmed, Morrie showed up as her sponsor and was very proud to do so. Great man, great friend and will be missed greatly. Jean & Cheryl Dahlman

“ We lost a good neighbor and we will deeply miss Maurice. We bought our first home in 2018 and when we moved into our new community, we were warmly welcomed by the Wickstrok family into the community. Being a first home owner, we knew nothing about home maintenance, we always go to Maurice and his wife with many questions and they are always willing to answer our questions and available to help in any way they can. The Wickstrom family are almost like a family to us and we will deeply miss Maurice

May his soul rest in perpetual peace 🕊️.

“ We lost a great friend and brother Iron Worker for sure. Morrie and I worked together for many years. He was quick of wit and fun to be around. We would stop many times for a few drinks at the local watering hole after a long day at work. Rest easy, my friend. Our deepest condolences to Bridget and family.
