“ Maynard loved his family more than anything. He visited, called and gave of himself to them all. He loved friends and did favors for others also. Helping out in snowstorms was one of them. He loved watching sports both on TV and his grandkids play. He spent his time at home with his wife Marlene whom he was devoted to in marriage over sixty years. Praying he is with his son Bradley, his brothers, sister and Jesus in heavenly glory.

“ I will never forget sleepovers at Grandpa and Grandma's with my cousin Matt. We would then meet "the crew" at BK restaurant (now pappy's in CR) for breakfast and get sunny side up eggs and toast. I think all of us grandkids remember the big black bags of crushed cans he would save for us take us to the recycling center for the cash. He was truly a unique individual. If any of us can be half the person he was, we will have left an amazing impact on many people like Grandpa Maynard. His cross stitching pictures are everywhere and his memory will live on through all of us. I love you Grandpa.
