“ Being neighbors and childhood friends of Brian and Colleen's, we spent a lot of time around the Modahl's. They were like our second home for many years as we ran back and forth for our house to theirs. Being kids we could really test the limits. Not very often would Mel lose his cool. He tended to always have that smile. My favorite memories are really pretty simple, but ones that still make me smile. Years later, after we had moved away, Mel would be doing business in the building I worked at and I would see him in the hallway, he always greeted me with that smile and as if we were still close neighbors. Time never seemed to change that.

Mom and dad tried to add a note on the Tribute Wall, but it didn't work. Dad noted the fishing trip to Beebe Lake and the Deer hunting trip on the farm. Most of all they remember many good times with all of us and the neighbor gatherings on Admiral Lane back all those years ago.
