“ My sympathies to Mel's sons ,daughters in-law, and his grandchildren. I know how much he loved you. I met Mel through his brother Dave who I was friends with. That was back in 1980,at Leon's supper club. Mel you touched my heart. Father, we thank you for perfect love which shines all around us. And we thank you for giving us so many kinds of love... and the precious blessing of knowing every one. Love Peggy

“ I have many good memories of my Uncle Duke. Playing tennis with me and the many conversations throughout the years. It was always a party when the Studers’ got together, especially when the “out of towners” came to Sherburn for a visit. He was “good people” and will be missed.

Todd, Scott & families; I’m sorry I can’t be there to celebrate his life with you but I’m in Dubai spending a month with my first grandchild. I’ll be thinking of you all on your day.

“ Dave and I loved getting to know Mel through dinners and conversation at Amber’s house. What a great guy. I loved his humor, stories, wisdom and cribbage skills. He will be missed! Prayers for his family and friends during this time.

“ I met mel in November of 2017. We made plans to have dinner and play cribbage. That turned into a weekly fellowship, cribbage and dinner night. Mel met a lot of close family and friends of mine through the years and they all also took to his infectious personality. Mel imprinted on my life and so many friends and family members of my life as well these past few years. I feel blessed to have known Mel and able to have so many cherishable memories with him.

My favorite memory is that Mel and Todd were able to attend my wedding in November of 2019. The family and friends of mine who hadn't met mel prior were so happy to meet him.

“ Mel was such a sweetie! He was a charismatic, extroverted story teller full of warmth and smiles! He was the kind of guy that could just go up to anyone and strike up a conversation. I was privileged to have the opportunity meet up with him a few times with my sister-in-law Amber where I was charmed by his inner light and humor. I am so grateful for having spent those times with him.

I was so sorry to hear that he had passed and will be praying for his loved ones during this difficult time.
