“ I have a lot of great memories of Grandma Miller. Most of them include staying overnight at her house where she would build a fort in the living room and then she would make an awesome meal of her great fried chicken and breakfast with fried bread dough followed by chocolate cake with chocolate frosting. She was an awesome lady.

Grandma Miller will be deeply missed. She taught me how to make my first pair of shorts, when I was 5. They turned out terrible but she said they were great. She taught me how to sew, bake and cook. We always had a blast together. Grandma Miller was amazing and I have very fond memories of her. She would rake a big pile of leaves just so you could jump in them and throw them back around her yard. During any conversation with her, you would hear her favorite word, Whatchamacallit!!!! Sometimes I would count how many times she said it. Always made me smile. She even got me to share her onion rings at Perkins and I don't like onions, but I did it for her. I will always love you and adore you Grandma Miller.
