

Michael Richard Fosler

June 26, 1962 - April 19, 2024

Michael Richard Fosler, affectionately known as Mike, was born on June 26th 1962 in Minneapolis, Minnesota. He passed away far too soon, on April 19th, 2024, at the age of 61.

Mike was incredibly hardworking and excelled in his role as a Partner of Renovation Solutions, LLC. He was a man of many talents, but his skills were unmatched and he felt most at home behind the controls of a bobcat. Mike enjoyed live music, playing in pool leagues with friends and family and was known to befriend all he met. He would never miss the chance to crack a one-liner and make the people around him laugh or to take a vacation to the Gulf of Mexico. Mike loved his daughters dearly and lit up when given the opportunity to share his love for them. Mike was a beloved father, brother, uncle, son and friend to many. He will be deeply missed.

Mike is preceded in death by his father, Arthur Richard Fosler and mother, Inez LouElla Fosler.

He is survived by his daughters, Amanda (Jonathan) Seyfert and Alisha Baller; his four grandchildren, Jack, Madison, Ian and Chase; his siblings and their families, Robin Forrest, James (Stacy) Fosler, Rick (Antinia) Fosler and Jamie (Todd Anderson) Fosler and his stepmother, Laurie Fosler.

Please join us in celebrating Mike's life Saturday, May 4th beginning at 2pm at Glen Haven Memorial Gardens, 5125 West Broadway Crystal, MN 55429.

“ A tribute to Mike "Imagine"

*We like to imagine you smiling, heavenly angels close by,
healthy and happy,
surely, you did not die!*

*We like to imagine you laughing,
in the company of many you have loved, close by.
Surely, you did not die!*

*We like to imagine you standing, nearby,
in times of remembrance,
sadly, we cry.*

*After which, in prayer,
we remember you alone.
And we bring you back,
knowing, you did not die!*
