

Michelle Haen Herrera

May 10, 1958 - April 25, 2024

Michelle Haen Herrera, age 65, passed away peacefully on April 25, 2024. Preceded in death by parents, Irene (Shemon) and Gilbert Haen and brother, Michael John. Survived by her husband of 40 years, Jhon; her daughters, Marina (Michael) and Jessica (James); three grandchildren, Eleanor, Lucas and Olive and many cousins and lifelong friends. Born on May 10th, 1958, in Encino, CA, Michelle later moved to Linden Hills in Minneapolis, MN. She adored cheering on her grandkids in various sports and cherished her walks around the lakes. She attended Southwest High School, received her BA in Business Administration from Hamline University, and dedicated herself to a fulfilling career at Target Corporation until her retirement. Her kind heart and ability to love so generously will be greatly missed. A Celebration of Life will be held on Friday, May 10th at Washburn-McReavy- Edina Chapel (West 50th St. & Hwy 100)- 10am visitation, 11am service and reception to follow.
