“ 48 years ago my daughters and I met Mille in the kindergarten Sunday school class where she was teaching. We became good friends over the years at church, bowling, shopping and eating. I was there, and sat with Bob while she had her first heart surgery. Later I tried walking her five miles with her, and couldn't keep up. And I always wanted to go to Bridgeman's for ice cream afterward. She faithfully wrote to me when I went off to live in Arizona for 22 years, and she wrote to me in Albert Lea for 12 years after that, sending cartoons with Mille humor. I'm glad to have been able to help her at home since we all lost Bob. And she looked wonderful and we had fun laughing two days before she left us. The Marsh's were part of our family. Debbie, Susanne and I will miss her. See you when I get there, Mille. Love you. Gloria Jackson
