“Minnie was a neighbor of mine in Columbia Heights, 3 houses separated us. My mom, Laura Lindahl, shared a birthday with Minnie but 10 years apart. Minnie and I wrote letters to each other and spoke on the phone. She loved her son, Paul, so much and often shared stories of the adventures they had together. She enjoyed sharing stories about her life working in the banks. I was thinking about her today and found her obituary. What a special lady she was. I'm glad she's reunited with Paul and Howard now for eternity. RIP Minnie. I'll see you on the other side!
