

Molly Mamie Mary Godfrey

November 30, 1985 - January 23, 2026

Molly's love for others was always evident.

She was passionate about caring for others, and showed this in her work as a nanny, schooling for nursing and caretaking of family. She was a dog lover in every sense of the word.

Molly's infectious laughter and sense of humor will never be forgotten.

She was a beautiful sparkling girl inside and out.

Molly was an organ donor and saved multiple lives in passing.

She would have given those gifts proudly, and we are grateful this was possible.

Molly will be cherished and profoundly missed forever by her loving parents, Theresa and Bruce "Mike" Godfrey; her siblings, Michelle (Tyler) Siedschlag and Luke (April) Godfrey; her adored nieces and nephews, Hailey, Lewis, Nolan, and Nora; her partner, Adam Gregorich; and countless other family and friends.

Molly's life ended in cardiac arrest while actively pursuing sobriety.

We are proud of her efforts to overcome, and devastated she did not see those efforts realized.

Prayers/Services were held for Molly, including an Honor Walk at the time of organ donation.

A private celebration of Molly's life will be held with family.

“ Have you ever felt like the person that you love could peer right into your soul and you vice vercely into theirs though it was like a reflection of your own as well as you peer into their eyes!?”

To the most amazing woman I have ever met. You are perfectly imperfect and it's precisely that which makes you so beautiful Molly Godfrey You have a way of touching people's souls, warming cold hearts, and uniquely saving people. Before saving several others you saved me.

I was looking forward to you as my wife and to spend my life with you. Though one never knows the extent of length of time . You meant it when you said you wanted to spend the rest of your life with me, I just wish it didn't end this soon. I am blessed for every second we had and grateful for each too as they will not ever be forgotten.

Thank you for being a light in the world I so needed when I was hopeless and seeing in me what I couldn't see in myself. Thank you for my sobriety. Thank you for being my best friend, thank you for having my back regardless and fighting for me, thank you for your assertiveness and integrity. Thank you for believing me and believing in me. Thank you for your generosity, your laughs, unending conversations and genuine warmth. Thank you for your compassion, thank you for your affection and thank you for your love, thank you for your time, for your patience. Thank you for your time. Thank you for defining with me what family means to us and thank you for being dtr period. Thank God for you and your life and that he put you in mine. I knew he sent me an angel.

RIP Until we meet again MY LUV I love you!

“ This is perhaps the hardest thing I've ever had to accept and in all honesty I dont know if I'll ever be able to. Molly was one of the kindest human beings you could ever meet and had a gift of putting a smile on the face of everyone around her. I am absolutely crushed by her leaving us all way to soon, and at the same time feel truly blessed to have had the honor of making so many wonderful memories together, memories that will forever be in my heart and never be forgotten. ❤️ until we meet again R.I.P. “ Molly and I got to have the best years together when we were younger, we biked everywhere around town and back and forth to each other's houses, until our bike was stolen and we switched to rollerblades. It was us against the world and nothing else mattered, we laughed so much everyday and enjoyed life to the fullest. Molly is truly my soul-sister and no one understood me like she did. She would build me up and be there no matter what she was facing. Her heart was so full of love and life. I will always miss you Molly and will have you in my heart for changing my life in so many positive ways. You were the Harry to my Lloyd (we called me Floyd for years before realizing!) and I'm forever grateful for our time together. I love you.

Thank you so much sharing this. She told me about Floyd. I loved making her laugh and laugh with her. She did live to the fullest. She understood me and changed my life as well. She's truly an amazing and beautiful soul.
