

Morgan Neeser

May 1, 2005

Neeser Morgan Joseph Neeser, age 14, of Edina, died April 28, 2005. Survived by parents, Gweneth & Joseph Neeser; sister & best friend, Bronwyn and puppy, Goober. A student at Southview Middle School in Edina, Morgan was gifted in many sports (baseball, football, snowboarding and track), but his real passion was baseball and he aspired to be a professional baseball player. He loved music and played the coronet. He had a brilliant intellect and was a vibrant, charismatic young man who brought joy to everyone he touched. May he now enjoy the peace that he so often found at Crane Island. His wonderful sense of humor will always be remembered by those who loved him. Memorial service Monday, May 2 at 3 PM at Colonial Church of Edina, 6200 Colonial Way. Memorials may be directed to Edina Baseball Assoc. Washburn-McReavy Edina Chapel 952-920-3996

“ Hey Morgan man, I remember when I was like nine years old and you taught me how to snow board. I still think about you man all the time, almost on a daily basis. You were my really my only friend when I was in elementary school and you were 13 and 14 you are and always will be in my heart as a best friend. Love you man

“ Joe, Gwen and Bronwyn~ I don't know where to start but I want to say how sorry I am to hear about morgan. A long time ago I worked at a daycare where I met Bronwyn. She had a special place in my heart. I was going through some old pictures, I found one of Bronwyn holding her new baby brother Morgan. So I searched the web to see if I could find you. As it turned out I found out this very sad news. I would love to hear form you. Kristin “ Today it was supposed to be rainy and cold but the sun is shining. I have to work today but my window overlooks a pond where there are new baby ducklings! I think of you everyday and wonder what we would be doing, where you would end up...but mostly about how awesome it was and all of the really wonderful memories I have. To this you would say "stop being mushy" but I can't help it! To the best brother on his hardest day, I love you!!!!

You taught me to live every day to the fullest and never take anything for granted, I thank you for that because it's changed me into the person I wanted to become. I swear it was just yesterday I handed your mom what would've been your varsity jersey, I wish you could've played those varsity and legion seasons with us they were a blast. I know you and Ian are always looking down on us, can't wait for the day when we can all catch up!*2 TIM. 1:7

“ Life has always seemed very complicated. No matter what there seems to always be something thrown at you that you think you might not be able to handle. You on the other hand made these things look so easy and yet they must have been the hardest for you. I wish I could learn from your determination and confidence but every day I feel that those things are the most difficult to obtain. Just know that I think about you every day and that those thoughts have not grown less or blurry and they never will. All I hope is that you can at least give me small signs of guidance every day. I love you with all of my heart.

“ From the day I met you, I knew you'd change my life. I never thought it would be in this way, but it turns out I was right. You walked in unnoticed, few knew who you were. I saw someone like me, and that I knew for sure. I never noticed you felt the same, until they day they said it's true. I thought about all I had, and then my thoughts turned just to you. I was in somewhat of the same place, with not quite knowing where to go. I wish I could have seen it, the feelings you felt you couldn't show. The talent you had was something like none other. That day we lost a son, a juggler, friend and brother.

Anyways I finally got to share some of my best storys about you and even had the chance to hear someother ones. I did bring you're Mom a nice card and an ocean sented candle to remind her of your love for crane Island, and to try and make this time a little bit easyier for her and the rest of you're family. she wasn't ther but am sure she got it. Anyways I keep praying for you Mo I want you to know that I always knew that you were a good kid and good friend to have . I know you're in a better place and you're not hurting anymore. I know you may not be here physicaly but you are Spirtually and that tends to make it a little easier for me. Like always I keep praying for you and I will look forward to the day we meet again when it comes to be my time. Holla back boy haha peace

“Morgan, I spent alot of time thinking about you these past few days after talking with you're Mom and Dad, I was reminded of so many great times like how me and you took you're sisters car for a little joy ride, the times we would be in you're room and I would say something like "Hey Joseph get me a soda and make it quick, you would always start laughing and say whatd you just say Riley and then you'd jump off you're bed and start wrestling with me and it seemed like everytime that happend you would always give me like a dead arm or dead leg. One of my personal favorites, How we had to do a health video and you didn't like the one we did at you're Mom's so after that one not working out you flashed the video camera and said Heyyyy Mr.Nelson. Those are the times I will always remember of you Mo. Watch Over us man thinking of you always Peace.

“ Hey Morgan, I finally get to say this I really miss ya. Betsy S. hasn't gone one day without crying about you and recently she has come across some trouble with someone that has been testing her with comments about you. I miss you even I didn't really know you but I knew you were really nice and that you were Bryan Tyus's friend oh and don't forget Shane R. I know they all still think about you even if they don't show it. I would love to help Betsy out with her crying and she never forgets you, ever. you are in her heart and mine forever.

GOD I MISS YA, I CANT BELIEVE ITS BEEN A YEAR MAN. I
REMEBER THE GREAT TIMES UP AT KRIS'S DAD'S HOUSE
HOW YOU WOULD OWN ALL OF US IN PAINTBALL, AND HOW YOU WOULD ALWAYS MAKE US LAUGH AT YOUR JOKES OR WHAT YOU WOULD DO,AND REMEBER WHEN ME AND BRYAN

“ I just heard the tragic news about Morgan and I have spent the day in tears. I have such fond memories of him. How much he loved his Beany Babies and the one I gave him named “Weenie” a Dachshund. I knew Morgan from age 5 to 8 – those were special times. One of my favorite moments was when the family spent some time at my home in California – in the morning Morgan and Bronwyn ran into my room to wake me, they were both giggling and wanted to play with my cat Monroe. Morgan had a sweet little short giggle noise that he made; it was so infectious that I had adopted that giggle and throughout the years have thought about him over and over. He is in the sweet arms of the Lord and I look forward to seeing him in the future.

Bronwyn – it was you that I was looking for when I saw the news. I was wondering if there was news of you on the Internet so I “Googled” you. I knew that you would become a strong woman having been a strong young girl. You must be 17 or 18 by now. You, your brother and Dad will always have a sweet spot in my heart.

Joe, Gwen – I can’t imagine the unfathomable pain you have endured. My heart and prayers are with you.

Much love to your entire family.

“ This is the time and season to remember all the good times we shared at Thanksgiving at Aunt Polly's house. You thought it was so "sweet" that I made you banana bread of your own and cheese cake.

It made me smile to see you laugh, play cards and board games and cheat, so funny. You will be missed this Thanksgiving my darling, but you will be in Aunt Polly's heart than and forever. God hold you in his loving arms and keep you safe. Aunt Polly “mo we miss you so much!! i think about you all the time...i know you're always with us but i miss your smile so much. i love you so much morgan i cant even begin to tell you!! everyday i remember times i was with you and automatically smile just thinking about them. your smile is amazing and i'd always feel happy whenever i was around you...morgan i love you so much and you'll NEVER leave my thoughts and my prayers. the day we are blessed to see you again is what we live for. you made such an impact on everyone...your personality was one of a kind and you're SO talented...school is definately not the same without you mo!! in 6th grade you taught me how to say "aight" the right way..i still laugh about that. rest in peace bud i love you SO much!

*"If tears could build a stairway
And memories were a lane
We would walk right up to heaven
And bring you back again*

*No farewell words were spoken
No time to say goodbye
You were gone before we knew it
And only God knows why*

*Our hearts still ache in sadness
And secret tears still flow
What it meant to lose you
No one can ever know*

*But now we know you want us
To mourn for you no more
To remember all the happy times
Life still has much in store*

*Since you'll never be forgotten
We pledge to you today
A hallowed place within our hearts*

Is where you'll always stay"

“Morgan..man i miss you so much! I can't believe it's been over 2 months since you've been here, it seems like so much longer with out you. I just can't get you out of my mind...I think about you constantly, and I'm sure everyone else does too. I just can't wait for the day that I can see you again up in heaven!! I know you're rejoicing up there now as an angel and you're looking down on all of us. When you were down on earth, i wish i couldve told you somehow how much you meant to me and how much i loved u and treasured you as a friend. So i guess now is a good time - Mo i love you sooo much and that will be everlasting!! You are truly my hero, and everything that i do in my life now i will dedicate to you, because it is the life that now you won't get to live. That's the sad part, that you had so much going for you and you won't now get to live it. And Morgan I'm so sorry. But from now I realize how precious life really is, and I'm gonna live it to the fullest because I've learned that life is very delicate. Mo you've taught me so many things and thats why you're my hero. Because I knew you, I know how to have fun and live my life the best way, i know that the kids at school who arent that cool are still important, i know how to be a better person, and a better friend..you were always a great one to me. But i'm glad that you are now happy and at peace now up with God. Edina or southview will never be the same without you mo..!!! r.i.p. forever i will see you when its my turn.

i'll miss the candy fight
i'll miss comparing beards, even when i knew that it was a month
since i shaved and i said i shaved the day before i'll miss helga and hans
but most of all mo, i'll miss you

They say you don't know
A good thing till it's gone
But I got to say they're wrong
I knew you were a good friend
A good friend all along

An athlete,
A friend
Now an angel

“ Neeser Family,

I am so sorry to hear of your loss. It wasn't until I was reading Morgan's obituary that I realized the connection I have to your family. I am a 1998 graduate of South View Middle School and 2001 graduate of Edina High School. I was involved in Synchronized Swimming from 7th thru 12th grades. (Synchro being the connection) Also, one of my younger brothers is a current 8th grader at South View and knew Morgan (as a classmate). What a tragedy your family, friends, and others have been faced with.

Bronwyn darling...I love you girl! What happened to your brother is tragic and unbelievable. You are a strong girl and I know with family and friends around you will pull through. E-mail me if you need to talk! Froggy Friends forever!

God's blessings, comfort, and strength upon all of you during this troubling/heart-breaking time.

*God, make me brave for life: oh, braver than this.
Let me straighten after pain, as a tree straightens after the rain,
Shining and lovely again.
God, make me brave for life; much braver than this.
As the blown grass lifts, let me rise
From sorrow with quiet eyes,
Knowing Thy way is wise.

“ To Morgan's family:

I believe that every life has a purpose. Most of us live and die with our purpose known only to a small circle of family and friends; but Morgan's purpose is a very public one and his life; although tragically short; is HUGE. So many children grieving the loss of a vital and charismatic friend; so many parents tuning in to what their children are saying and feeling in a different way than before. This is the gift that Morgan's life has given all of us. I believe that this is the purpose of the life he lived. And, while nothing will ease your sorrow - I hope that knowing that Morgan's legacy is this increased concern for each other - whether among his classmates or between families - will be of some small comfort as time goes on. Mo's life - and his loss - changed many lives - our prayers are with you.

“ Rosebud

*When God calls a teenager
to dwell with him above,
We mortals always question
the wisdom of his love.
For no heartache can compare
with the death of a child
who does so much to make this world
so wonderful and mild.
Perhaps God tires,
always calling the aged to his fold
and so he picks a rosebud
Before it can grow old.
God knows how much we need them
and so he picks but few
to make the land of Heaven
more beautiful to view.
And so, when young ones depart
we who are left behind
must realize how much God loves children;
Angels are hard to find.*

Morgan was always smiling and upbeat, a great influence for his

Of all the memories of Morgan, the one that stays with me the most is from a game in Bloomington, when he was on the 12-yr-old Buzz team. He crushed one over the left field fence and across the street!
I was coaching first base, and he was smiling from ear to ear as he ran past. The rest of the team was there to give him hi-5's when he crossed home plate. That's how we'll always remember him.*

“ *Dear Neeser Family-
Morgan was a student of mine in 3rd grade at Concord. I remember his great smile and sense of humor. He was a good friend to everyone and always brightened up the room. I am so sorry to hear of your loss. My heart goes out to all his friends and family! My prayers and thoughts will be with you in the days ahead.*

“ Morgan,

You will always be remembered by every single person you've ever touched with your sweet, funny and smart personality, and though some of us may have not known you as well as others everyone misses you. You left this earth too soon and you never will get to fill out your life which is why we are so sad as well as the fact that no one will ever again get to see your bright smile or hangout with ur dazzling personality. So in honner of you all of us are dedicating the rest of our lives to you. Any dance or job or children we have we will have in honner of you because you will never get to experience the joy of these things, but we know you are watching down on us and living through us and listening to our prayers and requests. You have brightened so many peoples lives and you have so many friends. We want you to know that you made a difference in the world and our lives no matter how small or how big. and that you are loved and missed by so many. We want to thank you for the time you were here on earth with us because they are very bright and happy years. You made such a difference and we want you to never forget that, we know you are happy in heaven and all of your wildest dreams will be granted there. We know you have found peace with yourself and your family now and that you are up flying and smiling above our heads, homes and families. You will never be forgotten and you will be remembered in the hearts of hundreds that you touched here on earth. Thank you for being so brave and strong...

“ Hey Bee,

I've known you and Mo since you were both so little. It has been amazing to watch you grow. You are a strong and wonderful gal. As time moves on, I hope that you will find some comfort in knowing that Mo loved you and thought the world of his big sis. In talking with him, I know that he was very proud to be your brother. He looked up to you. You were a great sister and friend to him. He was very lucky to have you. When I think of Mo I just can't help but smile. When he was goofin at W.G. with his hilarious sense of humor and I was TRYING hard to be mad, he always had a way to make me grin. What a smile that kid had!!! I hope that Mo has found peace and that you and your family will have peace in your hearts soon.

If you need an ear you know where to find me. Miss your smiling face!

My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family.
