“ If this is the same Morton that I think he may have been, I met him around 1960 while he was visiting Mexico City with his friend (Roger, if I remember right) and stayed with my family for a few days. I was just 9 or 10 at the time. He didn't speak much Spanish and I didn't speak much English, but we managed to communicate well enough for him to teach me how to play Chess. I remember him as a kind and patient young man and I wish I had found him sooner and had a chance to say hello. I'm happy to hear that he went on to get married and had children.
