

Muriel Molde

February 24, 2012

Molde, Muriel Tait Muriel was born December 3, 1922 into a large musical Irish family of 12 in Limavady, Northern Ireland. In 1945 she married Clyde Molde, a soldier from Minneapolis, in her family church in Ireland. She came to America on the Queen Elizabeth with hundreds of other war brides in 1946 and together she and Clyde made a life in Minnesota. Muriel was a fine mother, a loving wife, doting grandmother and a friend to many. She enjoyed her pets, knitting, reading, bridge, fashion and decorating her home with creative flair. She was always there with love, affection and good humor. She was preceded in death by her husband Clyde, son Greg, brothers and sisters, Tommy, Vi, Joe, Jack, Lil, Charlie, Mary and Martin. She is survived by brother, Maurice Tait; son, Jeff Molde (Margaret); daughter, Patty Ostenson (Jim); grandchildren, Nick Pester, Ben and Kate Molde; long time companion, John Wagner; nephews, Brian Tait, Martin Tait (Jane); niece, Helen Paris (Henryk); and cousin, Kathleen Callaghan. Celebration of her life will be held Saturday, Feb. 25, 2:00 pm at: www.Washburn-McReavy.com Edina Chapel 952-920-3996 West 50th St. & Hwy 100
