“ Muriel was kind of my second mother in the Columbia Heights 42nd and Jackson street neighborhood. When I would wonder down a couple doors from home to knock on her back door, she'd offer me milk and cookies. Her son's Bill and Dan were my mentors. I looked up to them as though they were designated guides into what my future might be. Muriel's younger daughter Debbie ended up being almost a sister, growing up partially at our house with my sister and brothers. Our families have always been close and we will miss her dearly. Muriel always had a warm, loving heart for me and I am so grateful for the difference she made in my life.
