

Myrna M. Erickson

November 3, 1926 - December 24, 2021

Erickson, Myrna (Kylander), age 95, passed away peacefully on December 24, 2021. Preceded in death by her parents, husband Arthur Erickson, sister Edith (Harold) Lundeen, and daughter-in-law Jill Erickson. A lifelong resident of Minneapolis, she graduated from Edison High School in 1945 and had a long and enjoyable career as office manager for Pella Windows. She was a lifetime member of Salem Covenant Church and the American Swedish Institute. She loved entertaining her family and friends and delighted in setting elegant tables and serving delicious meals. She also loved to travel, particularly to Sweden, play the piano and organ, and most of all to share jokes and laughs. She is survived by her loving family, nieces Carol Ralston and Jane Mayo, stepson Richard Erickson, grandchildren Brett Erickson and Julie (Sean) Woodward, great-grandchildren Elayna and Xander Woodward, great-nieces Marin (Paul) Morita, Kelsey (Matt) Jordan and Britta Mayo, great-great-niece Allison Jordan, and many lifelong friends. Her family and friends will dearly miss her spirit and wonderful sense of humor. In accordance with her wishes, a private service will be held. Memorials preferred to Salem Covenant Church or the American Swedish Institute.

“ Dear Carol, Jane, Richard and all of Myrna's family - I will always be grateful for knowing Myrna. My memories from childhood onward include her kindness, her welcoming presence, her smile which often progressed rapidly to infectious laughter. I am so sorry for the loss your family is experiencing. I am also certain that you will always feel the joy of having had Myrna in your lives. Bonnie Johnson
