“ My friend Nadine, It was June 1964 when your daughter introduce me to you. She and I were dating and would subsequently be married. Sadly, that marriage ended in divorce. What did not end however was the friendship that you and I had developed as son-in-law, mother-in-law. For the next 52 years you always treated me with dignity and respect. For that I am grateful and hardy thank you. I have learned much from you. For those 52 years you and I would laugh and cry together especially over the donuts. You have no idea how those 12 donuts in those bags in your freezer influenced my life. I was honored and humbled to be there when you took your last breath and joined your family in heaven.. I am deeply saddened because that day happened. I will be less due to the lack of your counsel. Thank you Nadine. Thank you for being you, thank you for being the loving grandmother and friend to the three children your daughter and I created in love, and thank you for always being you. I have learned much from you. I will miss you. Oh how I will miss you. I love you. Your friend, Corky.
