Nan is survived by sons Scott, Michael, and Tony, daughter Mary, daughters-in-law Nan Marie, Nu, and Debi, grandchildren Alexandra, Terra, Aurora, David, Brigitta, Zach, Brian, Jake, Olivia, and Hadley, great grandchildren Vivian, Xander and James. Born and raised in Minneapolis, Nan loved her city. She was the proud owner of Nan's Bed and Breakfast serving travelers from all over the world in her charming Victorian home. She offered her guests great advice and directions to local sights, attractions, and restaurants. She spoke of the city as if she were an appointed ambassador of Minneapolis. Nan extended her love out to the world and it usually came back to her threefold. She was lovingly honest with everyone and she looked for little miracles in her life every day. She was one of a kind and will be missed dearly by her family and close friends. Memorial service will be held Friday, January 10, 2020 at 10 am at Lakewood Cemetery.
