

Nancy Lois Berg

May 23, 1935 - July 23, 2023

Nancy Lois Berg, 88, passed away on Sunday, July 23rd at Little Hospice in Edina, MN.

She's finally home in the loving arms of Jesus, and reunited with her devoted husband Jack.

Born May 23rd, 1935 at the Swedish Hospital in Minneapolis to Bror and Valborg Isakson. Preceded in death by her parents, sister Joan Wadsten, brother Neil Isakson and husband Jack. Survived by children, Laura (Steve) Nelson, Linda (Brad) Henke, Lisa (Paul) Pettersen, and Jeff (Jennifer) Berg and their families. She loved her 10 grandchildren and 13 great-grandchildren.

Nancy walked hand in hand with her husband as they served the people of Luck and St. Peter's Lutheran churches for 34 years. Nancy lived a big life in a small town! She loved decorating her home with antiques and items from her Swedish heritage, painting, walking her dogs, and spending time at their cabin.

We know she is fluffing the clouds with a glass of white wine in one hand and cream puffs in the other. Her ebullient spirit poured out love, love, love upon all she met.

“ Our sympathies, love and hugs are being sent to Nancy's family. She was a spitfire, with a twinkle in her eye and a smile and laugh that lit up a room. She was "our other Mother" growing up, giving advice, a hug and a treat. May wonderful memories bring smiles to your faces as it does mine.  Lori Jerrick Vilstrup
