“ I had the honor to work with Nancy at the Information Desk at Children's Hospital. I have a lot of fond memories of her. I remember on Halloween at Children's Hospital , I always dressed as the Great Pumpkin. Nancy was able to take me downtown to have me catch the city bus. As I was getting out of her car there was someone who was dressed as a bumble bee and me as the great pumpkin getting we were getting on the bus. We had many laughs with that cute little story. Nancy was a lady of grace, warm and loving. I was not able to make it today, to her beautiful Memorial Service. I just got a note from Kendall M. from Children's Hospital he said that Betsey did a beautiful tribute to her mother along with her sister and brother at her side. Nancy, you are know with the Lord and your loved ones.

May the peace of the Lord be with all of you at this time, thoughts and prayers.

With Love,

“ Today I say goodbye to my life long friend Nancy Maclear Erickson. We first met when we were 13 years old at Hopkins Jr. High. We have shared weddings, maternity clothes, births of children, vacations, tears and laughter. We have shared birthday celebrations at Nicollet Island Inn and many cups of coffee. In 1983 you moved to the home across the street (just a camp site away as we said) and our love of gardening bloomed. I am not sure who has more hostas but both our gardens are beautiful. We laughed about who would get the bed by the window in the nursing home but the view from heaven is better. Nancy, I will miss you so much.

“ I didn't know Nancy, but I know her brother Bill. Since parents usually raise all their children the same I suspect she was a wonderful person with a quick wit and big heart. I know that Bill and his family, as all of those who knew her, will miss her. But the good news is she will be there greeting everyone upon that heavenly arrival with that same quick wit, big heart and a lovely smile.

“ Full of life and laughter and . . . willpower. Had she caught me she could have killed me. At four years old I stood in the back of her closet with my cowboy boots on, cowboy shirt and pants, cowboy hat synched tightly under my chin and two six-shooters in holsters on my hips preloaded with cap rolls that sounded like firecrackers when they went off. She came into the closet and I pulled out my six shooters and let 'em rip. She jumped high and backwards and fell on top of the bed behind her. That was my only chance for escape, I ran out of the closet right at her as she was reaching out to get me. I took two hard right turns, ran down the hallway, another right turn and ran down the steps to safety. I turned around just as she grabbed my shoulder saying, "Billy, don't you dare do that again." (She shouldn't have used the word dare. I scared her every chance I got.) We laughed every time we told that story. She could have killed me, what willpower.

“ Nanc - A woman of grace & charm, talents that were never ending and a sense of humor that snuck up on you and made you smile. To know Nanc was to automatically love her. If she touched your life, then you were a blessed person. She will be truly missed, but is united with little Mary Elizabeth and her mom & dad with her Lord in heaven. She was a GREAT sister-in-law. My love and prayers to her family. Paula Erickson
