“ One of my favorite memories of your mom was when we were both in our early 20s. We both had just purchased our first home. While sharing our excitement about how our homes were both close to a park and an Elementary school, we realized that without realizing it we had bought homes just blocks from each other! Divinely orchestrated I'd say. We didn't always get along as children but now we would become very close indeed! For the next 10 years we would spend almost every day together. Our children would go to the same school and we even had our babies (Jami and Courtney) within 2 weeks of each other. We were always there for each other and a deep love for each other resulted ! It was a precious time in my life. I Will always love my sister Nancy! So grateful to God that we will see each other again! I want to add that I saw 1st hand how very much Nancy loved her children, Jodi, Tony and Jami ❤️
