Dear Molly and the Forrest Family,

What little I know about Nancy through her daughter Molly was that she was a loving mother that did everything to raise her daughter to be just like her, a kind, caring, respectful and intelligent young woman. Nancy worked hard to make life the best for herself and her daughter, and she was successful with this. What I saw was their extreme closeness to each other, and that they loved and cared for each other. Nancy will always remain close in Molly's heart. Molly, I wish you peace and comfort in your daily life ahead. Your mother will always be with you.

*Love,
Nina*
