“ Aunt Nancy was a beautiful, kind, graceful lady! I think her and uncle Clifford were a truly loving couple, now they are together in the most perfect place, Heaven. I was trying to think in that large Grangruth family if ever an unkind word was said about her, I just don't think there ever was!

“ Nancy was my god-mother and aunt. She was a blessing to the "Ollila" family. She has a big heart and a sense of humor and her smiles and laughter! She was kind and giving and did so much for others. There is not enough room to write all the things she did for us over the years. We love her and know she is in Heaven with her husband Clifford and sister Delores and brother Douglas and her mom and dad. She will never be forgot. Her legacy will live on through her kids and grandchildren and great-grandchildren. May God bless the memory of Nancy! She new Jesus as her personal savior. She wanted all her family to accept Jesus as there personal Savior and Lord. So they could join her in heaven some day.
