“ I have two favorite memories of Aunt Nancy. When Angie and i were dressed in purple for Lisas wedding and Aunt Nancy and Aunt Kathy did our hair..Angie and i..felt like our hair looked like movie stars...and i we never understood why Lisa..being the oldest..was the only one allowed to wear a hat! And i remember having my own daughter Pear..as a baby...stuffed in a pink snow suit..and Aunt Nancy sharing with me the most important thing she ever shared with her children was the rosary. Just as our mom did with us. And as i am trying with Pear. She lit a candle and said a prayer and spoke with the priest the morning Lisa told me when i was driving her to school. A slight detour for a childs request..for a childs crying heart. For a Great Aunt that she had the honor of meeting only a few times in person..and only through a handful of my own memories...but..will now..through all of you..will have the opportunity to know pieces that helped to make Pear her..and as her mother..and Aunt Nancys niece...i cant thank you or love you enough. May God continue to bring you peace today and through every tomorrow. And may Aunt Nancys grace live on through Lindsey and her Grand Daughters.
My Love.. Always..
Kate
