“ Conrad, Butch, please accept my condolences on the passing of Nancy, I for one, fully understand your and your families thoughts at this time, please know that although these thoughts will continue to linger. However knowing that Nancy is most certainly in a better place, where she is at peace, and with out any hurts, we will all miss her, be as strong as you can, and remember all the great times we all spent together, I certainly do.

“ Butch, You were so blessed to have a woman of such strong spirit as Nancy. She not only put up with your cantankerous ways but she truly loved you as a man, a husband, and a soul. I know because I had to know! So I asked her. And she affirmed what I already had concluded.

Nancy had that sweet humility married to inner strength, a maternal nature, and fortitude.

You are a lucky man Butch!

And at this time, my heart grieves with you.
