

Mrs. Nancy Louise Neudecker

August 2, 1942 - April 21, 2018

NANCY LOUISE NEUDECKER

of Bloomington, MN, passed away peacefully Saturday evening, April 21st, 2018. Born in Minneapolis, MN on August 2, 1942. Survived by her husband, Mike Neudecker; son, Joel Neudecker, and his partner Edip Imrahor; daughter, Melinda, and husband Don Umstead; grandchildren, Casey, Andrea and Jessica Umstead; great grandchildren, Isaiah & Denaisha Kushel, Marianna Bravo and Lilyanna Garcia; her sister, Rosemary Powell and two nephews, Steven and Todd Lunow.

Nancy loved life, dancing and playing guitar; an advocate for women's rights and abuse against women. Loved card parties with family. Loved animals, with many pets over the years. Loved traveling as much as possible. She was an accountant. She battled valiantly through five strokes, yet maintained a good attitude for the rest of her life.

Cremation will send her off lovingly to heaven. A celebration of her life will be planned for the near future.
