“ Nancy was the sweetest, kindness person I was lucky enough to meet. She was the secretary at CWA Local 7200 in Minneapolis and she always had a smile on her face and in her voice. I remember when I would call the hall and say "Hi Nancy" she knew it was me! She had that ability to remember your name by just hearing your voice. Lots of the guys said it happened with her. She became a widow at an early age, but she always maintained her pleasant demeanor.

Toward the end of her career at CWA the regime changed and there were people actually mean to her. It upset her and we talked about it. I have no idea why they would treat her so shabbily, but that is on them not Nancy. Nancy endured that episode of her career and still would smile and remember my name.

Thank you Nancy for your smiles and laughs, everyone you touched enjoyed you being there to answer the phone and help them out or point them in the right direction.

God blessed you with a special gift and you used it in the best of ways,

Enjoy your eternity in heaven,

Don Colston
