“ Dear Dana & Justin (Daughter-in-law and Grandson) There are no words to describe how much we all miss Nathan. This is not our home, we are only passing through. Our real home is in Heaven, where Nathan is right now, with Jesus. We will be with him again in Glory. Dana and Justin we love you both very much and are here for you 24/7 for anything and everything. Trust Jesus

“ Words are inadequate to express how very sorry I am for the loss of your precious Nathan. Praying that the Lord would bring you comfort and peace as you walk through this incredibly difficult time. May He lighten your burden and carry them for you as you trust Him with with each day. May His love surround you and mend your broken heart.

“ Dana & Justin, I am so sorry for your loss. I'm not sure my words can convey my feelings. Every time I saw Nate, he was always cheery and had many good things to say. He had such a great sense of humor and I really believe he loved to laugh. I sure that everyone will tell you how much he loved you both. Dana, there are very men who will speak about their wives the way he talked about you. He didn't just love you, he adored and worshiped you. I hope you can find comfort in these words. And please reach out if you need anything. We are all sad that he will not be coming in to see us anymore.

“ Dana and Justin, I am so sorry for your loss. I am also sorry that I will not make it to the memorial as I am in New Jersey for work. Nate was such a loving caring hard working man. My memories of him back in the Target days will be cherished forever. He fought a long battle and his love for the two of you was undeniable. My heart and prayers are with you.

“ My deepest sympathy for the loss of Nate. May the Lord give you the peace that only he can give you. I will always remember Nate as a go out of his way for you type of friend, always willing to help me with whatever I had a need for. He would also reach out to me multiple times a week on Facebook messenger, filling me in on what was going on in his life. I know he had a rough life, filled with pain, but he did bring joy and comfort to others even though he himself needed it more, a very admirable trait.

“ I am so deeply sorry for your loss. I met Nate when we were kids and was recently reacquainted with him on Facebook. During that time he spoke of his love of God and his family, often. Please never forget that. May he rest in heaven until you see each other again. Sending prayers to you all. If anyone ever earned their wings, it's him.

“ Dear Dana and Justin, We are so sorry to hear about Nate. (I am Mark's sister). Nate was a wonderful helper to our family in so many ways. Always ready to help fix or carry or lend a hand with whatever was needed. From tweaking that lawnmower, helping us change turn signal lights, or fixing a motor on a car, he was always willing to help. Mark used to say "Nate can fix anything" and he was willing to share his talents that way. Nate had a keen sense of humor and was such a hard worker. He loved you all very much and we are very sad he is not here. He is in Heaven today. We are praying for God's comfort at this time for you all. Sincerely, Cathy and Reid Victorsen
