

Nathaniel Lawrence Leach

October 2, 1982 - December 18, 2021

Nathaniel "Nathan" Lawrence Leach October 2, 1982 - December 18, 2021
(Age 39)

Nathan passed away peacefully on December 18th, 2021, into the light and love of God's presence after a battle with liver and kidney disease. Nathan joins his father, Glenn Leach, paternal grandfather, Clayton Leach and maternal grandparents Lawrence Garner, Carole Garner and uncles Marc (Jennifer) Garner, James (Ann) Garner, and Todd Garner in eternity. He is survived by his best friend and wife, Jen, and their two children, Jack and Ellen, as well as his loving mother, Linda Leach, siblings Jonathan, Brian (Jeaneen) and Lynn Hughes and special niece and nephew Karissa and Brent Leach, along with grandparents Nanette Leach, Veronica Garner and Fiometta (Deb) MacKinney, Aunts Jeanine (Russ) Bussman, Jackie Trembly, Shirley Cox, and Sharon (Lou) Chavez, uncles Duane (Janice) Leach and Eugene (Jan) Leach, in-laws Denny and Barb Widmer, Mary (Rick) Coates and Michael Widmer. He is also survived by many nieces and nephews, cousins, and dear friends near and far.

Nathan was a Senior Software Developer at The Nerdery software company in Minneapolis. Prior to that, he worked at Aware Web Solutions for ten years, as well as Law Enforcement Technology Group.

Nathan and Jen were married on April 16th, 2004, in St. Paul. Both are graduates of Mounds View High School.

Nathan's pride and joy was his family. He was an outstanding dad, husband, and son. He shared his mechanical aptitude with his children. He also taught them how to play piano and guitar chords. The family enjoyed traveling adventures together.

Though we wish our time with Nathan here would have been longer, we take comfort in the knowledge that he is safely in God's arms. His legacy will live on forever through his children.

A celebration of his life will take place on Wednesday, December 29th, 2021, at North Heights Church Chapel in Arden Hills (enter through Door B).

Visitation will be at 2:00pm, Service at 3:00pm, followed by refreshments in the Great Hall. The memorial service will be at www.northheights.church. Click on 'watch live' and chose Arden Hill.

“ Nate was a very gentle soul. I always enjoyed his company. It was always a pleasure playing worship music together with him. He had a beautiful velvety voice that he used so skillfully to bless The Lord with. My favorite song he soloed was, I Can Only Imagine. Now he knows!

“ I worked with Nathan on his first project at Nerderly early last year. He was talented, kind, and a joy to work with. Even though I only knew Nathan a short time and through work, it was clear how great a person he was and how much he loved his family - I am so sorry to hear of his passing. I wish for peace, healing, and comfort for his wife, kids, friends and extended family through such a difficult time.
