“ Nate surfaced at our house earlier this summer to help his father complete work on an ongoing home improvement project. Although our interaction was all too brief we were fortunate to have met him and to quickly appreciate his understated sense of humor especially while working with his father Chris and his brother Andrew. He worked hard under trying hot weather conditions and had obviously learned well his carpentry skills from Chris. The three made a great team.

Sally and I are so very sorry for the loss of such a genuinely nice person.

“ Thinking of you so much always, brother. You'd have a big grin if you could see everyone who's walked in today asking for a premium and a jack fire. You are so loved.

“ Nathaniel, I have only seen you occasionally in the last number of years but you and your family are forever part of our family. Your dad will always be one of my best friends. We were so happy when your mom & dad moved a few doors down when all our kids were young and we got to see you grow up for a while. You will be missed but we will see you again.
Chris, Joanna, Caleb & Andrew, we cry with you and will miss Nathaniel. He was a warrior and stood strong besides those he loved. Now he is standing with the King of Kings guarding the gates of heaven with the angels.

“ I met Nate through his dad Chris. He worked with us many times over the years remodeling homes. Nate was a quick learner and became a skilled craftsman. I always knew work would get done right when he was there. Nate was respectful and always referred to me as "sir". Our customers appreciated Nate's attitude and work ethic. Our sympathies to JoAnna, Chris, Caleb and Andrew.
