“ I met & worked with Neal at Rise after he had been diagnosed and had been ill for awhile. No matter what was going on with him or what he was going through, he always had a big smile and friendly greeting for everyone and was always pleasant to be with. We were Blessed to know him, to have worked with him and to have spent time with him. Rest in Peace good friend.

“ Neal
you didn't have to try to be “Superman”, that was simply a part of your nature. You took on challenges that most of us would be inclined to turn and run away from. I'm so glad you had Paula your great love, Chelsey your life's inspiration and so many other beloved family and friends. I can't imagine the number of lives you gave hope, courage and the tools to change their lives at Missions. You talked the talk and walked the walk. My dear friend I will miss your physical presence, but I know what I learned from you will continue to inspire me. Now you can fly Superman — be at peace...
