“ My family and I would like to give you and your family our deepest sympathy for the lost of your love one. I too have lost several loved ones in death, and the pain is tremendous, even with the passage of time. I found words of encouragement from God's word the Bible. The Bible speaks of death being an enemy that God never intended mankind to experience. In Isaiah 25:8, God promises that in the future he will actually swallow up death forever. You can put all your trust in God's promises. You and your family are in my prayers.

“ So sorry to hear about your Nick. I am remembering you all in my prayers. It was so nice to see him and his lovely Kaitlyn and Adam this past October. His eyes seemed to light up when he looked at his little son, Adam.

“ Nick was one of my favorite students, always kind and had a smile to share with all those around him. My heart goes out to his whole family, whom I have had in all my classes at Fridley High. He graduated with my son Daniel and to be taken at that age is a heartache that I won't recover from soon. God be with all of the other students that will mourn his death. May they see Your presence in their lives, giving them comfort and love. He will be missed.

For years, I have watched the eyes of Nick's loved ones sparkle as they have spoken of him. I know the sheer joy they expressed when he brought Kaitlyn and their son, Adam, into the family. It has always been evident that Nick was incredibly well loved, and he shall be profoundly missed. My deepest sympathy to his beloved family.

Much love to you all...
