“ I would see Nicole tangentially at work, as we worked in different departments doing different jobs. She was clearly very dutiful to her work, intelligent, conscientious, kind, responsible. She made good use of the gifts God gave her. May our Lord grant her eternal rest.

“ I first met Nicole during her "Jersey" years, when she and my daughter, Betsey began their beautiful friendship. While her career in education was short, the kids at BSS in Paterson were lucky to have her! She became a part of our family back then with her sunny disposition, loving spirit and joyful heart and has remained here since. She will always be in our hearts! Our prayers and love are with all her families and friends.

“ I have known Nicky since grade school. I have many fond memories of her. To this day I think of her whenever I see a Calvin and Hobbs book. She always had an optimistic outlook on things and her Facebook posts always gave me a giggle. Gone too soon.
