Nicole Lucille Amelia Klinefelter

October 12, 1957 - September 21, 2024

Nicole was born in St. Paul, Minnesota, to Melvin Engelmann and Lucille John. She grew up and attended school in the Highland Park area of St. Paul, as well as attending First Baptist Church, where her grandfather, Frank Steinhauser, served for many years as Church Organist.

Nicole met her life-long husband Gary Klinefelter at a bible study in Roseville, MN, in 1974, and the two were married at First Baptist Church in St. Paul in 1978. Throughout their marriage and family life, Nicole and Gary depended and relied upon their faith in Jesus Christ as their foundation. Nicole and Gary raised their four children (as well as many pug dog litters) in Eden Prairie, MN, after moving there in the early 1980s.

Nicole is survived by her husband Gary Klinefelter and her four adult children, Phillip, Mark, Peter, and Sarah. She is preceded in death by her mother

Lucille A. John; her father Melvin Engelmann; and her grandparents Frank and Lucille Steinhauser.

In the months prior to her passing, Nicole and Gary began regularly attending and found a new church home at Wooddale Church in Eden Prairie, where two of their children, Peter and Sarah, also attend and where Sarah was recently baptized.

A memorial service is scheduled for Thursday, October 17, 2024, at Wooddale Church in Eden Prairie at 11:00 a.m.. Livestream available at: <https://live.wooddale.org/>
