“ I had only met Nikki a few times because we both spoke at Marie Cooney’s Fringe Festival Stories about Disabilities last summer. Her story blew me away! She was brave, compassionate, articulate, sassy, smart & wise beyond her years. Her death is inconceivable! I can only imagine your family’s grief & that gives me pain too. She was a shining star. Sending sincere sympathy & prayers.

“ Dear Barb, Alan and family,

I am so sorry for your loss. Nikki was an inspiration for me and those on South 11. She accomplished so much in such a short time. I've taken time to read her book again after hearing about her passing. She loved life! She enjoyed people. I loved her glow when she learned a new fact or information. She had the sweetest smile.

You are loving parents: strong, courageous and patience itself. Thank you for being a role model for the parents you've met along the way. Nikki knew you two were her safe harbor in any and all situations.

*"If raindrops fall in Heaven Lord please take my daughter's hand
And dance with her upon a cloud so high,
Then when the storm is over if a rainbow should appear
Somewhere off in the distant sky.
Gently take her by the hand and lead her on her way
So that she might find the rainbows end,
Then as she smiles in wonder at the treasures Heaven holds
Wrap her safely in Your arms and dance with her again,
For you see she was an angel Lord here upon this earth
And though I'll be forever grateful she was mine,
I simply was not ready when I had to let her go
And I still think about her all the time,
So tell her that I love her Lord more than she'll ever know
Then gently place a kiss upon her cheek,
For though she is in Heaven now I want her to know
She still means the world and all to me.." Tammy Fox*
