“ Her compassion for her students inspired me and she always made me work a little harder for her students because of this. I will miss her and remember her whenever I think of people who strived to make the world a better place.

“ We were saddened to learn of Noreen's sudden departure and are praying for all who survive her. Noreen left a legacy of family, faith and selfless service to others. We feel a special indebtedness to Noreen and Nancy for inviting Pearl to church and helping to introduce us to each other. We are comforted by her evident faith in Christ.
