“ Norma Jean and I were very good friends for many years when we both taught elementary vocal music in the St. Louis Park schools and later when our boys were little. We saw her name in the obituaries this morning. Bill and Darren, Web and I are so very sorry for your loss. Norma Jean was one of the most talented and lovely women we have ever known and the world will be a darker place without her in it. We will be in touch as arrangements are made.

*With love and deepest sympathy,
Web and Kay Webster*

Norma Jean was my first Choir instructor in 1970. She was absolutely timeless, an angel put upon this earth for others. Caring, sincere, dedicated, a wonderful soul. Norma always had time to listen to you, she lives in my heart forever.
