Karolyn and Kathy, thank you so much for sharing your mom's service. It was a pleasure and a gift to hear Norma's history and the amazing things she did for her husband, her children/grandchildren, her church, and her faith. The music you selected was beautiful. I hope you can find peace and comfort in knowing how much love you shared with your mom and that she's being celebrated in Heaven, as well.

*Lots of love to you and your families

*So thankful I could be with you, Kathy and Karolyn, for this beautiful service for your dear mother, Norma Hall. It hardly seems possible that we met nearly 65 years ago at LBI. I missed being with you in person. One day we will all be together in heaven forever!
Many happy memories! Eleanor Carlson*

Kathy and Karolyn, both of your parents would have loved this service and would be so filled with joy that the entire next generation is carrying on. The music and words were all so true and honoring of the little servant warrior named Norma Hall. Much like Mother Teresa, she was a power and light of her generation. I have always admired her so much. May you find peace and joy as you move on in life that you will meet again. Love you guys! Jane Brandt

*“What a blessing to be at my high school mates funeral and hear how Norma served and loved God and his Word. That was true in Roseau High school too. She was also a very good student. We tied, I was told, for the highest grades in our class.
My mother was born in Salol so maybe you may have heard of the Erick Mattson family as we remember the Kristofferson name. 'Nice meeting' some of Norma's family.
My sympathy and God's love and care. Alice Strandlund Beckstrom.*

“ Hi to Norma’s family. Was wonderful to see the video. Recognized all those facial expressions....as I saw them for three years as a Deac classmate. She was so mature and since I wasn’t....I called her MamaK. Term of endearment. She had such spiritual depth that many of her classmates admired. Was also great to see a picture of Larry. I know she is with Jesus.....and I hope that provides comfort for you in this time of grief! My condolences to each one of you. Faith
