“ I delivered meals on wheels to her. She was a wonderful woman with a positive attitude toward life and always cheerful. Her mind was very sharp ( she always told me that at least she still had all her marbles). We had many conversations about family and life in general. She really loved her family and I know she felt their love. She wanted to make it to her 95th birthday and she did it! I will miss her very much. God bless you and Rest In Peace, Peg. My condolences to your family.
