“ My deepest condolences to the family, I know that this must be a very difficult and painful time for all the family members. The loss of a loved one, especially a child, leaves a tremendous void and emptiness in our hearts. As parents we don't think of our children passing before us.

I can't say that I know how you feel, because each person experiences their own personal pain differently. I know the pain you feel is different from the pain I felt when I lost my dad, but it all hurts! It's painful now, but I would like to share with you what helped me during my grief, and that is the beautiful promise of the resurrection. (John 6:40, Isaiah 25:8, Daniel 12:2)

The bible promises that soon your precious little loved one will hear the voice of our Savior, Jesus Christ, and awaken to live forever on a new paradise earth where death will be no more, neither will pain and suffering. (John 5:28,29; Revelation 21:1-4)

Our heavenly Father never intended for us to endure such pain, because he himself doesn't like death. Ezekiel 18:32-"I do not take any pleasure in the death of anyone, declares the Sovereign Lord Jehovah."

Soon this will be a thing of the past and we will live forever with our resurrected loved ones. This may not seem like much, but I sincerely pray that it gives the family and friends the strength to endure until our loving Creator fulfills this promise.
