“ *From our family to Olmira's,
We send our most sincere sympathy in this deep loss. Olmira's shop was a destination always pleasantly anticipated given her warm welcome & incredible talent with needle & thread! More than her talent with tailoring she shined brightly as an amazing human being...a business owner with a heart she made countless people feel special over the many years in Andover. She will be dearly missed by our family. May your hearts be filled with her living spirit. God bless each of you.*
