“ Hey grandpa how you doing.. just found this now but I have some things to catch you up on first off looking at these photos tootsie has never slept better in her life second your chair and us we all miss you 😊 and i have no idea what memory is my favorite but I know this will sound bad but hear me out seeing my dad ball his eyes out right next to me has to be one of my favorite moment since your passing well that and my book I only say this because you know he doesn't really show emotion well and that was the one time I could read him like a book and Just feel his pain it made me sad to see him as broken as he was same for the rest of the family but it also made me happy to see how much they all loved and cared for you you sure do know how to make an impact huh lol now I know where I got it from but anyways your my favorite I think about you very very often I don't know about the others in the family since they don't talk much about your passing / there feelings but I know your always with me and I know grandma knows too but it was great discovering this and actually having digital photos of you I believe I have your last photos taken but idk I could only visit you once sadly I wanted to hug you but I was scared to hurt you so i Just did mentally and I wanted to talk to you too but it seemed like that hurt to do but anyways more family updates they sold the lake house you mad me too but it was better for grandma and she's happy now she got a new van I know again angering but she likes it I personally loves the other one more your children are doing great too I know my dad is y know your look a like but Um finding out what old him if he was healthier would've looked like shocking also how he ended up looking identical to you also very shocking another thing I really wanna know what life was like when you were alive in the 40's and 50's and 60's and you know all the times also I did some reading up Judy says you like making fun of uncle Dave which I remember very very funny but I'm not gonna lie really would've loved you and I letting lose on my dad that would've been iconic and fun and maybe would've brought his cocky ego down a smidge mr thinks he's good at everything 😭😭😭😭 but I don't have grandmas number but really wanna talk to her for hours about her life and raising all these kids and when she met you just everything you both are very interesting you know lol anyways it's one in the morning and I got school tomorrow im going to holla back later to chat since we gotta update this not used since 6 years ago delio also I want to visit your grave thanks to this found out where it is so I'm going to do that once I have transportation I am also going to ask grandma your favorite flowers and if it's not flowers I'll make a bouquet of grandmas face for you with a purple bow idk for sure on that purple bow but yeah I'll investigate hopefully your resting neighbors don't get jealous I'd get them something too but then that'd mean I'd have to get all the lonely neighborhood something and I don't have enough money right now to do so but once I do you better count on it that I will and I'd keep yours full of flowers and maybe if possible have it be a grandma bouquet all the time I don't know about winter tho since we'll i don't see how that'll work with snow and Minnesota snow of all but I'll figure it out anyways we'll chat byeeee for nowwwwww

“ My fondest memories of Orlan were when Dave and I were first married. Orlan and Alberta would drive out to our house in Blaine almost every Sunday to visit. In the summertime, we would BBQ and watch the kids swim in the pool. Other times of the year, we would visit in the house. We always had great conversations and wonderful food! Orlan loved his family and taught his children the value of hard work and what can be accomplished by it. He was a great role model and I will miss him very much! I am happy that he will no longer suffer!

Orlan always made me feel welcome and loved! I will always cherish the times we spent together! He was a wonderful father and grandpa! He will be truly missed!

I will miss his mischevious little smile! He would make me laugh when he would pick on David. He never meant any harm; it was all just in fun!

RIP Orlan! Love and sympathy to the entire Bjornrud family as you grieve your husband, father, uncle, grandpa! My thoughts and prayers are with all of you! Remember all the good times you spent with him! He will live in your hearts forever!

“ My best memories of Orlan are from some of the experiences that he enjoyed most. Many of those were from time spent out on the lake fishing and time with his family.

In the 32 years that I've known him he has proven to be kind, smart, practical, loving, honest, considerate, honorable, protective of his family, firm in his beliefs, Norwegian-stubborn (mostly with good outcomes), a talented craftsman, hardworking, diligent, do-it-right, strong in his Christian faith, an example of what integrity is, a dedicated husband, father and family man.

I'm grateful to have been part of his life. I am forever thankful for allowing me to marry his incredible daughter just 30 years ago.

Orlan - We will forever love and miss you.

“Orlan was a kind-hearted man. He fearlessly lived his life in a path of honesty. His strength during both good times and bad times will always influence my approach in life.

"Death must be so beautiful. To lie in the soft brown earth, with the grasses waving above one's head, and listen to silence. To have no yesterday, and no tomorrow. To forget time, to forget life, to be at peace. You can help me. You can open the portals of death's house, for love is always with you, and love is stronger than death is."-Oscar Wilde
