“ *With thanksgiving for Pastor and Missionary Otto Valder:
When I think of Pastor Otto Valder I feel a sense of thanksgiving that God is the One who remembers every cup of water, every word of grace, given in His name. Otto's personality hid the quality of his work. He took on some hard assignments, as he was called of God. In his preaching and in his testimony he had the not so common grace of putting first things first. He had a deep confidence in the Word of God preached. With joy and thanksgiving we honor the lives of Otto and Ossie. We rejoice that they are experiencing the reality promised in Psalm 126:5 "They that sow in tears shall reap in joy. 6. He that goeth forth and weepeth, bearing precious seed, shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him. With love in Christ,
