

Pacita Repollo Brooks

December 20, 1946 - November 9, 2020

Pacita “Inday” Repollo Brooks was born to Marcelo Alfanta Repollo and Aurea Gallano Romero on December 20, 1946 in Ozamiz City, Misamis Occidental, Philippines, the oldest daughter of 6 children. She died peacefully, surrounded by loved ones on November 9th at home, following a courageous 2 year battle with breast cancer.

She graduated with her BS in EDUCATION from Immaculate Conception College La Salle, and became a school teacher (primary). She married the love of her life, Darrell Brooks on January 19, 2002 in her hometown, before relocating to Minneapolis MN.

Inday loved the finer things in life and was an avid photographer, crocheter, cook, dancer and gardener. She treasured holidays spent with the Brooks/Baker families and their children. She also enjoyed get-togethers with her Philippine community and along with her husband Darrell, was named Mr .and Mrs. Phil-Am of Minnesota. Her flower garden was her pride and joy. She lived abroad in Belgium for a period of time and learned French cooking.

Inday was also a successful businesswoman and investor. She purchased the land where she and Darrell built their home and even purchased a field of mango trees.

She is survived by her husband, Darrell Brooks and his family , her siblings Dulcisima Abellanosa and Marcelino Repollo, many nieces , nephews and friends. She was preceded in death by her parents, her older brother Henry Repollo, and younger sisters Josephine Repollo and Expedita De Barras.

She will be greatly missed, but we are reassured because of her faith in Christ.

A very special thank you to Dr. David Potter and his Nurse Navigator, Kathy Hodges, who provided excellent and compassionate care, and walked alongside the family every step of the way. There are no words that can adequately express our gratitude.

Darrell would also like to thank his family for countless rides to appointments and their unwavering support over the past 2 years; especially his son-in-law Duane, his daughter Angela, his son Christopher, and their mom, Isolyn.
