“ I love the picture chosen of you for the obituary. Your smile was a true example of the way you shared your love of Jesus each time you greeted them on your job and any where else. It has been an honor and blessing to have been in our lives and we cherish the very special memories especially updates of your nephews and our grandchildren, your trips to Iowa, fellowship after our Saturday night church services, both of our new cars, UCMAD retreat and not to forget you won the prize for the best Hat at the Tea Party!

As an outcome from "You can make a difference" class was how you used your God given gifts to make differences in persons lives. Bob and I remember when we went to the UCMAD retreat at Luther Park with you and a few others. Pam, your legacy will continue to live on.

Our friendship has made my spirit happier, my heart warmer, and my days brighter.
I will always remember the memories and realize your final journey will bring you joy and peace.

Love,
Gerry and Bob Parrott
