

Pamela Jean Langevin

March 26, 1966 - October 29, 2022

Langevin, Pamela "Pam" age 56, of Minneapolis, passed away peacefully on October 29, 2022. Preceded in death by parents, Dorothy and Luke Langevin; siblings, Bruce and David Langevin. Survived by sisters, Dianne Langevin, Barbara Davis; brother, Steven Langevin; nephews, Jake Langevin (Alisha), Josh Langevin, Nathan Davis (Jen Johnson); nieces, Cortney McDaniel (Nathaniel), Samantha Langevin; great nieces, Brittney and Alyvia Johnson, Amaya McDaniel; sister in law, Kim Wangerin-Langevin; along with many other friends and relatives. Pam was an amazingly fun-loving, generous and kind person. She was a creative artist who remained genuinely and unabashedly true to herself. While Pam enjoyed socializing with family and friends (including group home staff and housemates), she loved her time alone working on her many interests. She was most dedicated to latch hooking, making beaded jewelry, watercolor painting and writing what has become known as her "Great American Novel." Pam loved Elvis, Fonzi, Lucy, motorcycles, movies, balloons, pizza, fancy dresses only please, black shiny shoes, french fries and hamburgers, ice cream, slapping bottoms if she deemed you a friend (welcome to the club), chocolate cake and popcorn. She loved dancing, going to the movies and theater, making people laugh, creating art, being silly, singing karaoke and joining in on any impromptu fun. Pam was a remarkable woman and had many lessons to teach those of us who were listening. She was a gift to this world and was deeply loved by many. Thank you, Pam.
