“Pam and I were on the phone about 4 years ago and we were laughing and talking about times together —how much fun we used to have Pam said. You know what I ask God the other day ? I said no,tell me She said , I ask God if when we get to heaven , can we play?

“*Pam is with God now. I envision her skipping hand in hand with Jesus, experiencing boundless love and joy. Her children, Kate and Daniel, were everything to her. She will ask God to care for them now that she has left this life. I'm confident He will Pam possessed innate goodness, to the extent I've not seen in any other human being. She enriched my life. I thank God for sending her to me.
Love, Dan*

“ I met Pam a month or so before Kate and Greg got married. She was a gracious, kind and sincere person. From listening to Kate and Greg she loved art work, flowers, interior decorating, travel and most of all her children and her little Maeve her grand daughter. My heartfelt sympathy goes out to her family and friends. Judy Studelska
